

William B. Doty
823 Sonoma Avenue
Santa Rosa, CA 95404
(707) 542-1150
Fax: (707) 542-5854
wbdlaw@aol.com

Admission to Practice/Court Appointment as Judge Pro Tem

- Admitted and licensed to practice in the State of California
 - Court appointed Judge Pro Tem in excess of 180 family law cases in the counties of Sonoma, Napa, Mendocino and Marin
 - In excess of 500 successful family law mediations
 - Recipient of the Rex Sater Award for Excellence in Family Law for 2015
-

Education

Loyola Law School
Juris Doctor – 1972
Los Angeles, California

University of California – Los Angeles
Bachelor of Arts – English - 1968
Los Angeles, California

Experience

Present Mediator for Sonoma County Family Court Services

Present Member Sonoma County Settlement Conference Panel

6/98 – Present Private mediator, arbitrator and Judge Pro Tem – Santa Rosa, California

Currently 100% of my full time practice is exclusively in the area of family law, primarily as a settlement conference specialist, court appointed Judge Pro Tem and mediator. None of my practice is private client representation.

12/72 – Present Law Office of William B. Doty

Initial family law practice commenced in Beverly Hills, California. In June 1973, moved to Sonoma County, California. Solo private practice until end of 1974. Partnership of Doty and Renkow from end of 1974 to 1984. Individual family law practice from 1984 to present, gradually phased out to handle mediation and private judging clients.

9/68 – 6/72 Los Angeles City Schools

Teacher at secondary level

Selected Training Programs and Presentations

- 25+ years consecutive years attendance at Stephen Adams Saturday/Sunday Family Law Seminar
 - Presenter/speaker at numerous Sonoma County Legal Aid Family Law Seminars (presented in collaboration with the Family Law Bar and the Family Law Facilitator)
 - Participant in Collaborative Council of the Redwood Empire
 - 2012 to 2014 member of Sonoma County Family Law Committee
-